FHU Confers Honorary Doctorate Upon Lads to Leaders Executive Director Roy Johnson

Henderson, Tennessee — (Feb. 13, 2024) — Roy Johnson, often described as a humble and generous man, accepted his honorary doctorate with gratitude at a special ceremony held during the Freed-Hardeman University 88th Annual Bible Lectureship Wednesday, Feb. 7, 2024.

“This is the greatest honor that I have ever received,” Johnson remarked. As a member of FHU’s President’s Council and Executive Director of Lads to Leaders, an organization dedicated to developing youth leadership, biblical knowledge and Christian service, Johnson’s dedication has spanned more than 30 years. He has also been a regular speaker during the university’s annual lectureship. “I am humbled to be honored with this distinguished award from Freed-Hardeman University. I want to thank President Shannon and the Freed Hardeman University Board of Trustees.”

During a special reception held for Johnson Wednesday evening, he spoke of the honor’s meaning to him. “In our lives I think we have a handful of what I call ‘landmark days.’ One of mine was when I obeyed the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ; another landmark day was when I married my sweetheart, Brenda. Another landmark day was when my sons were born, and you’ve given me another one — a day I’ll never forget. Thank you for giving me a super landmark day,” Johnson said.

Daddy would be so proud of you, Roy. You are carrying on the vision and passion for young people that he had. Thank you for taking his life's work and bringing it into the 21st Century.
Your loving niece,
Rhonda Zorn Fernandez

Roy,
You lead and inspire others to lead and inspire others. What a legacy!
I'm so thankful for you.
Your friend and brother,
David R Shannon
